

BUILDING

- Developing new ways to do things.
- Producing ideas or behaviours that are original.
- Communicating and expressing ideas effectively.
- Looking at issues through different lenses.
- Appreciating beauty and excellence.

- Maintaining a healthy body and healthy mind.
- Recognising and managing danger online and in person.
- Having an awareness of basic first aid.
- Having an age-appropriate awareness of healthy relationships and sexual health.

- Striving to do our best.
- Engaging and persevering with challenges.
 - Being well motivated and prepared to take risks in order to learn.
 - Accepting and responding positively to feedback.
- Making progress and achieving our goals.

- Showing tolerance and trust.
- Having positive friendships.
 - Celebrating diversity.
- Being an active citizen who contributes positively to society.
 - Treating people fairly.

- Having an awareness of what is possible.
 - Developing study skills.
 - Having agency and the confidence that goals can be reached.
- Accessing careers information and guidance to make informed decisions.

- Exploring new ideas, activities and experiences.
- Having a strong desire to increase our own personal knowledge.
- Having flexibility in our thinking.
 - Thinking critically.
 - Problem solving.

- Contributing to the team's success.
- Listening to the views of others.
- Being able to work collaboratively towards a common goal.
- Valuing the contribution of others.
 - Clear communication and time management.

- Seeing a situation from someone else's perspective
- Imagining ourselves in the position of others recognising how others might be feeling.
 - Looking out for the welfare of others.
 - Being nurturing and caring to others.

- Exhibiting Fundamental British Values and political awareness.
 - Volunteering.
- Promoting social and environmental justice.
- Being accountable for our civic duties.
- Acting for the benefit of the whole of society.